Lofty mountains of knowledge reaching into horizons of learning-- These are our years at Rustburg High School.

As we ascended these mountains, we spent many precious moments in the hallowed halls of our dear Alma Mater.

Within these pages we hope to preserve the cherished memories that remain very much a part of us.

It has been a real pleasure to have you about. Good times, Good luck Dedication and see you.
Nancy W. Hundley

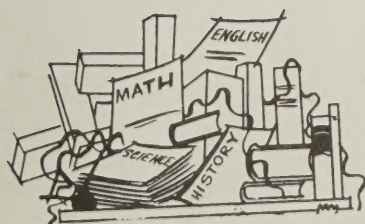

We admire her for her efficiency and for her professional attitude. We appreciate her for creating such a cheerful atmosphere and most proper place for important study and for giving her time before school and after school for the benefit of the students. We respect her for her integrity and her loyalty to Rustburg High School. We love her for herself.

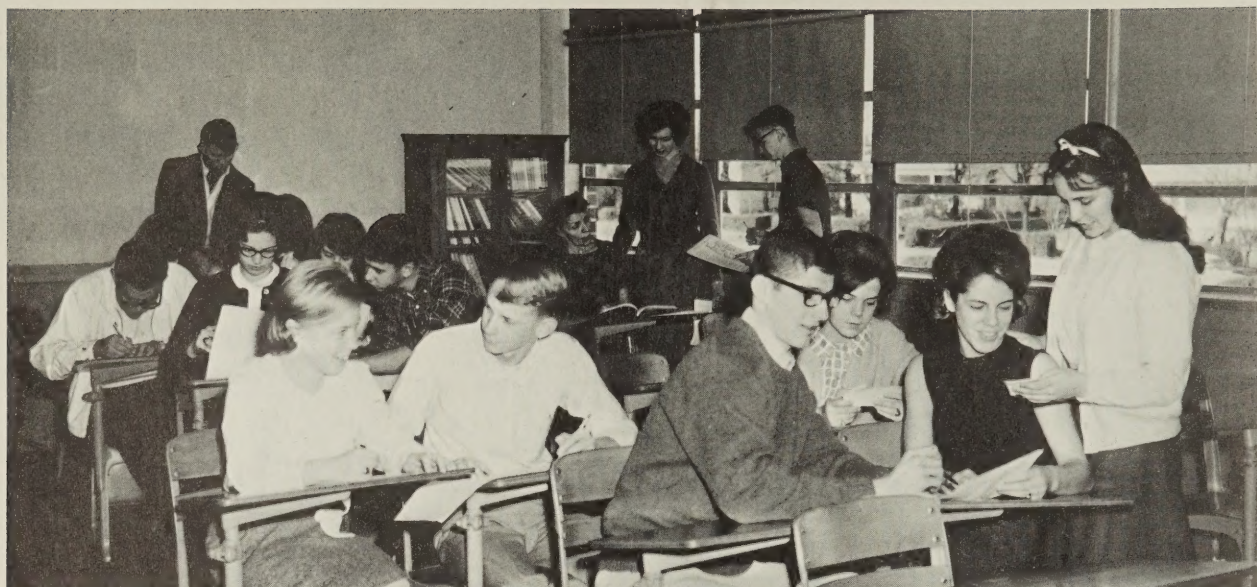

It is with a feeling of deep satisfaction that we dedicate our 1966 Yearbook to one who so richly deserves it--Mrs. Nancy Hundley.

MRS. HUNDLEY appears to be framed by books she knows and loves so well.

Christmas decorations form a backdrop for our smiling Librarian.

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might," Ecclesiastics 9:10.

Perseverence with fortitude has made our great civilization, and only with such young men and women as you will we continue to grow in knowledge and progress for humanity. Never before have young people had such opportunities for challenging, satisfying futures as you today have. Each of you will find many interesting opportunities. It is my hope that you will discover that your experience at Rustburg High School has given you that "might" which will contribute to your betterment as well as the betterment of our world.

ACTIVITIES

A SENIOR PRIVILEGE is taken seriously by Garland.

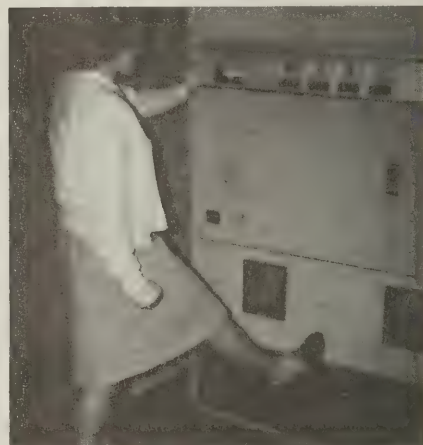

Mrs. Drinkard gets a BIG surprise.

This is a change; Seniors with nothing to do?

Seniors on the Go

Now, now, Mary Lou, put a dime in the machine.

Could this be love, or just Christmas Spirit?

Seniors enjoyed missing class for College and Career Day.

Seniors lose their heads over getting rings.

The Senior lunch bell must have just rung*- Look at all those hungry looks.

Seniors, in their last year at Rustburg, take pride and enjoyment in their work, in their play, and in their privileges. Most of the Seniors drive their teachers mad, but the teachers will be sorry to see them go because they have enjoyed them these last five years at Rustburg.

Most of the underclassmen are glad to see them go because they know that one day soon they will enjoy that privilege of being Rustburg's SENIOR CLASS.

HOW SWEET IT IS!!

My mother the French Teacher.

No playing in school, boys.

Smile Carolyn - you just got that long-awaited Class Ring.

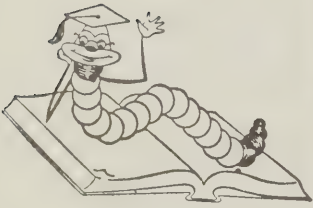

Classes Are Dreaded

Senior students ponder over Senior term papers.

Mr. Merricks' Speech and Drama students practice putting on make-up.

Now Jack, you know the answer to that question.

Come on Mrs. Braeur, tell everybody the joke.

These students really pay attention in class, especially when someone interrupts.

and Enjoyed at RHS

Betty, you're supposed to be typing, not talking.

Pay attention to the teacher, Steve, not the photographer.

Now, this is the way to pass.

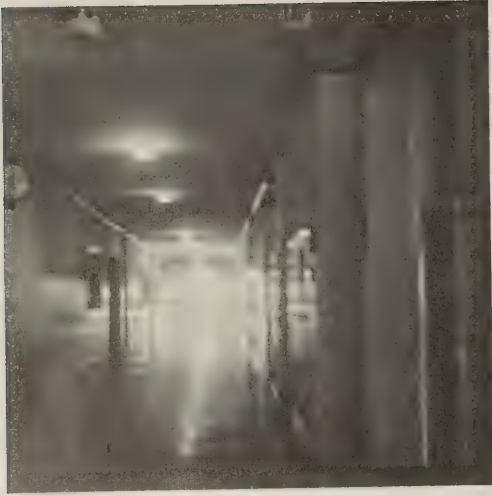

Mr. Fletcher's Biology class work over dissecting fish.

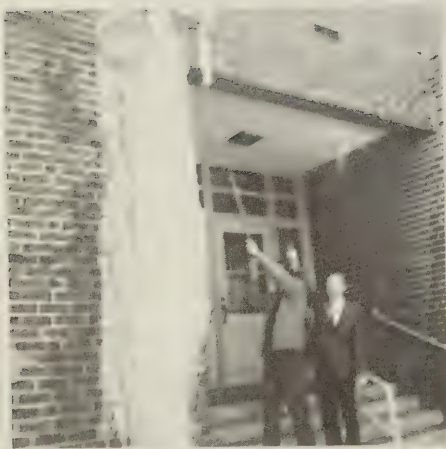

Janice Jennings fixes eggs???

Students Caught in the

The hall is quiet for a change, but not for long because...

The bell rings and students rush to class to lunch or to home.

Call Ed, he'll do the job for you.

Terry seems to be camera shy.

Bruce can Swing, even with a cast on.

Let's go Cheryl!!!

Whose Pony tail???

ct of Being Themselves

All's quiet on the homefront. . .

and then

Students hasten to their buses in a hurry to get home.

What's this? All the stags to the jukebox. Where are the girls?

Working on the float for the Homecoming Parade, these girls even got out of class

Now Kathy, Mr. Hege said twelve inches.

Sandra, Polly and Miss Bell admire their work.

Students get shorter by the year.

Christmas Activities

Santa's little helpers visit Rustburg in the identity of Seniors.

Santa doesn't seem to be too old to enjoy a blond Secretary.

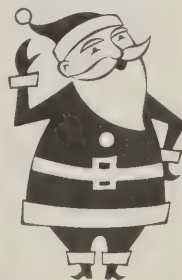

Mrs. Hundley's assistants wait eagerly to be served at the Annual Christmas Tea.

Our teachers show us how to do the ballet!!!

TWO LITTLE GIRLS???

You've gained a little bit of weight, haven't you, Walter?

This way to the jail!!!!

Mrs. Withers loves to take our money!

Mrs. Wilson didn't let the snow keep her in.

Just a glimpse of Mr. Fletcher's flower plot.

This day we came to school

----- This day we didn't!

"Let's bury Chatham," says Varsity Club.

To an outsider, football means games and excitement and cheering. But in the life of an RHS football player, it means long hours of tiresome practice, high hopes, and the reward of games well played. Our football team gave the Rustburg High students a team to be proud of, and the students gave the team the support they needed.

Jump shots, which are a favorite with the Red Devils, led our team to the District Tournament. In the tournament, played at Liberty High School, R. H. S. made a great showing and beat Brookville 76-58. Even though they didn't win in the game with Nelson County, we are very proud of our 1965-66 team!

These Are a Few of Our Favorite Things

Green pines, made by God,
Loaded with snow,
A breeze makes them nod.

Watching the sunset,
A big golden sun Turning red where the sky and horizon have met.

A lake rippling with the wind,
A cork on the surface bobbing,
The fish who is my friend.

The dark sky loaded with stars,
A crescent moon when setting,
The grass the dew is wetting.

A steep mountain slope
All colored with laurel,
The valley far below
Can fill one with hope.

-Brady Williams

Love is running through a meadow of daisies, pure and delicate with fragile golden hearts. I want to dance with the breeze in my hair and the warmth of the sun on my face. I am as free as a wild stallion. Life is so very lovely. I long to laugh at the silly fluttering butterflies who can't choose which flower shall quench their thirst. The larks above me are bursting with song as though they could know my happiness. I feel a wonderful child-like abandon. For me, the world is everything beautiful, as you take my hand.

-Audrey Cardwell

Happiness is walking through a meadow on a sunny day;
Happiness is being with friends when far away;
Happiness is passing a physics test;
Happiness is lying under a star-lit
sky to rest;
Happiness is loving someone dear;
Happiness is being loved by someone
dear;
Happiness is hearing a wild bird sing;
Happiness is my most treasured thing.

-Bruce Blankenship

There is the Clydesdale with his large muscular body and his great strength, used for working.
There is the racing filly with her long legs and light-weight, graceful and swift on the track.
There is the new-born colt, long-legged, uncertain, with velvet lips nuzzling his mother's flank. There is the stallion silhouetted against an autumn sky, proud, arrogant, whistling his challenge with scornful disdain.

-Lynwood Harris

A summer's storm is nature's finest work. It sweeps proudly across land and sea. The rolling bursting clouds race to clear the way for jagged streaks of lightning and rolling thunder. Then comes the rain, driving, pounding, slashing. The storm passes. The sun once more shines on a fresh and sparkling world.

-Billy Arthur

Homecoming Activities a

The Homecoming Activities started much sooner than the parade on October 29. Weeks before, students and sponsors had made plans for floats, posters, and half-time activities. On Thursday night there were SCA representatives and club members working until late to make their school really look School Spirited. Friday, the finishing touches were made on the floats and the walls were covered with posters. Throughout the activities of the parade, excitement and tension for the game mounted. The Homecoming Court, which was presented at the parade, consisted of representatives from all grades. A dance with the Galaxies was held in the gym after the winning game.

Plans for the Parade were made...

Posters to DEFEAT CHATHAM were made by the students....

The witch from the Monogram Club boils a Chatham player....

R. H. S. hears their band for the first time....

The Homecoming Court, represented by all grades, was presented...

Rustburg High School

The Future Nurses, sponsored by Mrs. Wilson, won first place for their float.

Mr. Hege crowns Bonnie Cunningham, Homecoming Queen, during half-time.

Wayne Irby and Bonnie Cunningham reign over the Homecoming Activities.

Elementary S.C.A.

Mrs. Fray, our faithful advisor.

The main purpose of the S. C. A. is to promote the school welfare. S. C. A. projects this year have included making health and safety posters, sponsoring a float in the Homecoming Parade, and sponsoring a bake sale. Money from the bake sale is used either to buy supplies for the rooms participating, or to help aid the S. C. A. treasury. One committee has put a "Lost and Found" department in the school. This project has been very successful this year.

Watch carefully!

Dana, Well here it is another year, another annual and just think next year will be the last time you are honored with having a member of the GREAT Class of '67 sign your yearbook. You better not cry - Cause if you do I will 'ha'! Seriously, (yes I do have a few serious moments) you've been the greatest friend a person could ever hope to have. If I were in your place I'd hate me;
All the times I go out with Cokie while you have to sit at home, but you hang on 'cause your day will come and sooner than you think.
Take

COMPLIMENTS OF

me I don't know where the time has gone but I've enjoyed every minute of it. Well, would you believe almost every minute?? We have had some good and crazy times together haven't we? And, hark!! The best is yet to come - next year when were the great football cheerleaders! Oh Boy!! (and if we handle it right, basketball ones too!) Anyway - I want to wish you the best of luck in every thing you attempt in life. I know you'll be a smashing success; with your looks, your charm and outgoing personality you couldn't possibly loose!! Just stay that way!!
Good luck to you and Bobby. (Or as Cokie says, "whoever you decide on" HA!! I guess) Bobby's a pretty good guy. (at least he isn't conceded - ha) Don't ever forget all our talks and fusses and discussions! How could you.

Altavista, Virginia

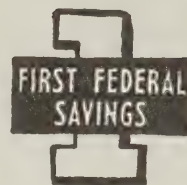

Well, good luck to one of the sweetest and nicest girls I know - may your problems be small ones and your blessings large & many. God be with you in everything you do!

Love,

"I'VE THE RIGHT TO PLAN MY OWN LIFE, TO EARN A LIVING AS I SEE FIT."

" . . . I'm limited, of course, by my ability and determination. But, overall, I call the shots. I'll be paid according to what I contribute, too. If I'm valuable, I'll earn more; if lazy, less. But there's always the thought of working up. That's because I live in a Free Enterprise economy where I have freedom of choice and opportunity."
